

Hackmatack Playhouse is seeking a Music Director for our upcoming production of Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story, to be directed by Billy Butler. This is a paid, non-union contract.

Contract Dates: June 17 - July 5, 2017

About the Theater: We are a summer stock theater, celebrating our 45th Anniversary. Our theater was founded in 1972, and is family owned and operated. We are a unique space, with our theater being housed in a converted barn in scenic Berwick, Maine. For more information on our theater and it's history, please visit our website at:

Job Description: Attend all auditions, and assist in casting the show with the director. Make final decisions about music cuts or edits with the director, and if need be, make recordings of any cuts or edits. It is the music director's responsibility to ensure that all actors and performers understand and can execute all music for the show; and to schedule the appropriate amount of rehearsals with the musicians prior to opening. The music director is expected to be in charge of any and all musical aspects of the production. The ideal candidate for this position works collaboratively, creatively, and can think on their feet. We would prefer someone with experience in rock musicals, and/or rock music. To learn more about the show itself, and what it requires musically, please visit:
